

SALON D'ART CONTEMPORAIN DU MALI DU 2 – 9 FEVRIER 2019 // ÉDITION #2

CALL FOR SUBMISSION TO THE OFF PROGRAM

From 2 to 9 February 2019 will be held in Ségou (Mali), the second edition of the contemporary art of Mali, called Ségou'Art.

Ségou'Art consists gathering gallery owners, collectors and art lovers, art critics around the works of young emerging talents from Africa and elsewhere, not only to discover their works, but also to initiate reflection on the development of visual arts in Africa, and to create the optimal conditions for the emergence of young talents. This art fair aims to allow gallery owners, collectors and art professionals to discover the new faces of African contemporary creation.

Its objectives are the following:

- To offer more visibility to the contemporary creation of artists of the new generation from Mali and elsewhere;
- To offer an opportunity for collectors and art lovers to feel concerned by the local artistic production;
- To promote innovation and creativity of young talents
- To expand the market to the artistic production of young talents from Mali and elsewhere.

On the sidelines of the IN program of this art fair, the organizing committee of Ségou'Art launches an OFF Program through this call for submission to artists from Africa and elsewhere.

Artists and art professionals can submit their intention to organize OFFs that will be included in the general program of Ségou'Art.

It should be noted that the successful applicants will be responsible of the research and development of their exhibition venue, materials and other logistics for their exhibition, the dates and the vernissage, and support charges related to their stay in Ségou.

The OFF Organizing Committee will support them in the identification of venues and other procedures depending on the availability of the team and as much as possible.

Application files for the Off Program must include:

- A letter of intent of submission addressed to the organizing committee of the «OFF Program»
- The completed registration form (download the form via: <http://koresegou.com/index.php?clD=463>)

The OFF program of Ségou'Art is organized by the Centre Culturel Kôre and the submission files can be sent by e-mail to the following address: centreculturelkore@gmail.com / by copying: segouart@gmail.com , by september 30, 2018, the deadline.
